2007

From The Principal's Desk

Life

Pride

Dreams

Successfully living your dreams can be realized simply by starting to think about your dreams--in fact, having a dream to begin with, is a step that most people omit.

Why waste your time wanting, wishing or complaining about not having "things". The fact is that many people are uninterested in doing what it takes to realize their own dreams. Maybe the reason many people fail to succeed is because people have a hidden fear of success and will, in fact, do things that are completely opposite to what they want. According to Tony Wagner and a collection of authors who wrote "Change Leadership: A Practical Guide to Transforming Our Schools", people have competing commitments that actually cancel out any momentum to change non-productive behaviors.

Every East Windsor High School student, as an individual, should think positive thoughts, write-out your plans for success and take the necessary action steps to duplicate all that was successful while eliminating that which was not successful. You should also identify new habits that put you closer to your dreams and further away from the distractions that side track your overall motivation. Start out with short range goals that you know are attainable. Dream it, see it, feel it, enjoy it, appreciate it, protect it and share it with someone important to you.

This is YOUR life! Take PRIDE in it!
Fill your life FULL of your DREAMS!

To paraphrase Langston Hughes' poem, "Hold fast to your dreams for if dreams die, life is like a broken-winged bird that cannot fly. Hold on to your dreams for if dreams go, Life is a frozen field covered with snow where nothing can grow."

Hold on to your dreams for "Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall."~Confucius

Dedication

The Class of 2007 would like to dedicate the yearbook to Mr. George Croft.

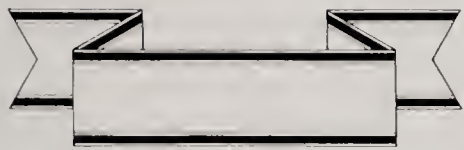

Mr. Croft is a well-known and well liked social studies teacher, coach of the Girls' & Boys' Indoor Track team and coach of the Boys' Track and Field team. He successfully coached the Boys' Track and Field team to the NCCC Conference Championship in 2006. Mr. Croft was chosen as East Windsor's Teacher of Year. An honor so well deserved. In addition, he has also traveled with our school on various trips around the world. You can often find him in the hallways chatting with students. He is more than a teacher, he is also a friend. Thank you for all you've done for us, Mr. Croft. We will miss you next year!

The Class of 2007 would also like to thank their advisors, Mrs. Chasse and Ms. Archer for all the hard work and time that they have contributed to our class. We couldn't have done it without you and your dedication.

Class History

By
Alicia Demers, Class Historian

It was the second time we had been at the high school and we were already aware of how most things worked. After being moved around from school to school, we were finally at one place for the remaining four years. Now we were one step closer to our future; we were in high school. Mrs. Chasse and Ms. Archer took us under their wings and became our class advisers. They gave us each a lego to represent how we would be connected as a class and stick together. We were to connect all the legos at graduation but that would be a long four years away.

It all started the year of 2003-2004. Mr. Johnson was our principal, at the time, and Mrs. Barmak, the vice principal. The class officers, who helped us get through our first year, were Melissa Desilet, Brian Harrington, Erica Lachat, Vanessa Hayward and Margarita Pantoja. We had our first pep rally and spirit week. Our hallway didn't win, but we did have a pretty cool volcano.

Then sophomore year arrived. We had a new principal. Mr. Kopf was our second principal of the four that we would be having throughout our high school careers. Our class officers were now Erica Lachat, Kim Kokofsky and Vanessa Hayward.

Our hallway theme was "Alice in Wonderland" and boy, oh boy, did our hallway turn out better than it did the year before. We still didn't win the contest but we were content with the job we had done. Also, this year, it was time to sell candy. We sold a whole bunch to get stocked up on cash for our big junior event, the prom.

Finally, junior year came. We were at last upperclassmen! Our class executive board members, who were elected to lead us through this tough year, were Shanice Willingham, Brian Harrington, Amy Destro, Emily Humphries, Shannon Shouldice and Vanessa Hayward. We started the year off with the first homecoming ever in the history of East Windsor High School. Spirit Week had been moved to the beginning of the year, so we were all pumped up for school. Our hallway theme was "Sports". We picked baseball and made our hall look like a field. This year, we had an interim principal, Mr. Saitta. Prom came up quickly and our theme was "A Midnight in Paris". It was held at Chez Josef on May 19, 2006 and it was a blast! The court consisted of Kyle Darragh, DJ Balbi, William Carballo, Margarita Pantoja, Stephanie Marek and Erica Lachat. Our prom queen was Shanice Willingham and our king was Jake Baker.

Finally, the year that all of us have been waiting for, senior year. It was our chance to rule the school. Spirit Week came up quite fast. It was our chance to win the hallway decorating contest this year, which we did. Our theme was "Decades" and we picked the '60s. With Marilyn Monroe, Fred Flintstone and Dino hanging around, we managed to upset the other three classes. We enjoyed an awesome senior banquet at the Sheraton at Bradley and a great senior outing at High Meadows. All the fundraisers paid off in the end. We put on two dances -- the Snowball and the Sadie Hawkins Dance. At graduation, all the legos were connected symbolizing how we had stuck together as a class for the past four years. Our officers this year did a wonderful job of putting everything together for a great senior year. They were Shanice Willingham, Vanessa Hayward, Amy Destro, Brian Harrington, Emily Humphries and Alicia Demers. Our class advisers, Mrs. Chasse and Ms. Archer did a better job than we could ever ask for on guiding us through these four unforgettable years. We would just like to thank East Windsor High School for giving us some of the most memorable years of our lives. We'll never forget this place as long as we live. Congratulations, Class of 2007. We made it!!!!

NCCC TRACK CHAMPIONSHIPS

It wasn't easy. In fact, it took an unexpected performance to make it happen. When Marshall finished third by jumping three feet farther than he ever had before, however, it was official — East Windsor had won the North Central Connecticut Conference Meet, sharing the overall league title with Tolland.

Those finishes, however, were pretty much expected. Here's what Croft and his team didn't expect: Marshall's clutch triple jump on his final attempt, Dan Samson's second-place finish in the pole vault from Brian Harrington, who had been out most of the year with an injury.

2006-2007 IS THE YEAR OF THE PEOPLE! People marched, demonstrated, fought, argued and voted to make their voices heard. People put the Democrats in control of Congress. People demanded an exit strategy from Iraq. Immigrants marched to show how valuable they are to the American economy. Scientists destroyed (okay, demoted) a planet. And screaming, text-messaging fans took a grey-haired soul man and turned him into an American Idol.

We became the media. MySpace, Facebook, YouTube, and SecondLife were the places to see and be seen. And since it was difficult to leave your house when you lived online, we relied on iTunes, Blockbuster and Netflix to deliver movies directly to our doors. DVRs and online downloads let US determine when we would watch our favorite TV shows. And our increased online music purchases have further crippled the sales of compact discs.

We grew and we learned. We discovered that dark chocolate was good for lowering the blood pressure, while Cherry and Mint Chocolate were good for making calls. We found out that high school was a lot more fun as a musical. We used our purchasing power to fight AIDS in South Africa, and we bought David Beckham for $50 million. We declared war on global warming, and were relieved when the only hurricanes to hit the east coast this year brought home the Stanley Cup.

And we finally got some recognition. For our impact on the world in 2006, we the people were named Time magazine's "Person of the Year." And for good reason: this year's accomplishments will shape the future. They will forever affect our daily lives. And they will live always in our hearts, in our minds, and in the pages of this yearbook.

Pluto No Longer a Planet

Still Loveable Cartoon Dog, Astronomers Assure.

Poor, puny Pluto. After it was discovered in 1930, it basked in the glory of being named the ninth planet in our solar system.

AND YET, PARIS HILTON IS STILL A STAR

Pluto was demoted to being a 'dwarf planet' by the International Astronomical Union, leaving only eight planets in our solar system. Science textbooks everywhere need to be re-written.

Some 2,500 astronomers from 75 countries met in Prague. The planet debate was often spirited and sometimes ugly. Some scientists proposed expanding the number of planets to 12. Pluto, its moon Charon, and two other objects, Xena and Ceres, would be planets. Other astronomers argued that some of the smaller, icy balls should be in a new lesser class of planets called "dwarf planets."
